

Explanations in this guide are intended to assist you to complete the Temporary Authority Form—numbers on the form relate to the explanatory notes in this guide

Background

It is a legal requirement under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 that you have a licence before you can sell or supply liquor.

The District Licensing Committee (DLC) is part of the Whanganui District Council and is where you go to obtain a liquor licence.

The object of the Act is to ensure the responsible sale and supply of alcohol. The process for issuing licenses means that checks are done to make sure only people responsible enough to work within the objectives of the Act are granted permission to sell or supply liquor. There must be a person with a current managers certificate on duty at all times when liquor is being sold or supplied to the public.

What does 'temporary authority' mean?

A temporary authority authorises the holder to operate the existing licence for a period of up to three months.

This is to allow the application for substantive licence to be received and considered.

Note: In the event that the substantive licence is refused the temporary authority will be void as of the date of refusal.

A second temporary authority will only be granted if there are delays outside the control of the applicant.

Process

Cost

The temporary authority application fee is $296.70 for the duration of the licence.

the application is referred to the Whanganui District Licensing Committee for consideration, it could take longer.

Processing times

It could take up to two—three weeks to process your application. If an objection is received, and

The processing time is very much dependent on the applicant submitting a complete application with all attachments.
